

LOUISIANA MASTER NATURALIST PROGRAM

Louisiana Master Naturalists
of Greater Baton Rouge

*Follow in the footsteps of John
James Audubon,
Caroline Dornon,
Percy Viosca...
Become a Louisiana Master Naturalist!*

The Louisiana Master Naturalists of Greater Baton Rouge nonprofit organization strives to advance awareness, understanding and stewardship of the natural environment of the Greater BR area by developing a corps of well-informed citizen volunteers dedicated to conservation education and service within their communities.

TRAINING INCLUDES
UP TO 10 DAYLONG
CLASSES + EXCITING FIELD TRIPS

Applications due: January 7, 2019
Cost: $200 tuition + $25 annual dues

BENEFITS OF BECOMING A LOUISIANA MASTER NATURALIST:

- Become part of a network of people passionate about Louisiana's natural history.
- Understand the interconnections among our flora and fauna and the well-being of our ecosystems, economic foundation, and cultural community.

CLASS SIZE IS LIMITED APPLY TODAY!

You'll find more information
and the application at:
www.LMNGBR.org

Questions? info@lmngbr.org

www.LMNGBR.org